DANDRUFF DISAPPEARS

Scalp Itch Vanishes and Hair Quickly Stops Falling

PARISIAN Sage—remember the name when you want a good, pure hair tonic free from dangerous lead and other dyes.
PARISIAN Sage is not a dye. Most tonics that dye the hair are full of poison and are dangerous to use.

PARISIAN Sage is a clean, delightful hair dressing that nourishes the hair roots and besides killing the dandruff germ insures life and beauty into the hair.
Your hair will look nice and brilliant after applying PARISIAN Sage and you can quickly get rid of dandruff and scalp itch and stop the hair from falling. Avoid imitations; get the genuine. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle and carton. Large bottles 50 cents at James O'Donnell's and dealers everywhere.

URGES SUPPORT OF TAFT.

James W. Poe Speaks Before Colored Residents of Randalltown.

A large meeting of colored residents of Randalltown, Prince Georges county, Md., was addressed last night by James W.
Poe of this city, president of the Consolidated Republican Clubs of the United States. The speaker highly commended the administration of President Taft and urged the audience to work for his re-election.

Poe traced the history of the republican party since its birth and said that it was the only party with which it was advisable for the colored man to affiliate. The speaker predicted that Mr. Taft would be returned to office, and said that he hoped to see republican congressmen elected.

FINAL ACTION DUE ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS

Dental Society to Vote on Reorganization Plan.
Democratic City Committee to Meet Tuesday Evening.

COMING ANNUAL SESSION National Association to Meet in Washington September 10.

MANY FEATURES PROMISED Local Committee Making Plans for Gathering—Preparation of Program Well Advanced.

With many details of its meetings already completed, announcement was made this morning of the preliminary program of the sixteenth annual convention of the National Dental Association, which is to be held in Washington, September 10 to 13, inclusive. Planning of the features of the sessions has been largely in the hands of the local committee of arrangements, of which Dr.
John H. London is chairman, and many speakers of wide repute, both in the dental profession and in scientific circles, will have places on the program.

Not the least important feature of the meeting in Washington will be the final submission to the association of the reorganization plan which was adopted at the tentative adoption of a new form of constitution at the last convention in Cleveland, Ohio, last September. The proposed final vote upon the question of the constitution at this convention was made in the preliminary program by Dr.
Arthur E. Melendy, of New York, president of the association. According to his statements, it is proposed to reorganize the National Dental Association along the lines of the American Medical Association. President Melendy stated that twenty-four state dental societies already have voted to become affiliated with the national association.

Features of Program.
All sessions of the convention will be held at the New Willard. The Rt. Rev.
Alfred Harding, Bishop of Washington, will deliver the invocation at the opening meeting, and the address of welcome will be made by Commissioner Cuno H. Rudolph. Dr. Frank O. Hetrick of Ottawa, Kan., will respond to the address of welcome, and in the same session President Arthur E. Melendy will deliver his annual address. Another feature of the opening session will be the presentation of a brochure on "Modern Dentistry in Germany," by Dr. Nevell S. Jenkins of Dresden, Germany.

Washington men who will have places on the program will be: Dr. Harvey W.
Whitely, who will discuss "A Consideration of the Effects That Impure Foods and Adulterated Drugs Have Upon the Human System," Dr. L. P. Keller, of Ottawa, Kan., and Dr. W. H. G. Logan of Chicago, Ill. Besides the Washington men who appear on the program, other addresses will be presented by the following:
Dr. F. E. Stewart of Philadelphia, Pa.; Dr.
M. J. McLaughlin of New York, N. Y.; Dr. H. C. Hulick of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. J. V.
Conzett of Dubuque, Iowa; Dr. Leon S.
Medalla of Boston, Mass.; Dr. George E.
Harris of Detroit, Mich.; Dr. C. M. Mc-Cauley of Abilene, Tex.; Dr. B. Holly Smith of Baltimore, Md.; Dr. H. Lovett of Birmingham, Ala.; Dr. H. H. Hunt of Macon, Ga.; Dr. W. R. Clark of Mason City, Iowa; Dr. Joseph Head of Philadelphia, Pa.; Dr. J. J. Moffitt of Harrisburg, Pa.; Dr. M. L. Rhein of New York, Dr. J. F. Riddle of Altoona, Pa.; Dr. Thomas B. Hartwell of Minneapolis, Minn., and Dr. George E. Hunt of Indianapolis, Ind.

In connection with the convention also there will be an elaborate series of dental clinics, to be held in the ballroom of the New Willard, and all of the sessions of Friday morning and afternoon, September 13, will be given over to the clinics.
During the convention also there will be on display at the headquarters in the New Willard an elaborate exhibition on hygiene, and when the convention has ended, this exhibit will be removed to the large hall on the Mall, where it will become a part of the exhibit on hygiene and health which will be one of the features of the fifteenth international congress on hygiene and demography, which will meet in the city of Washington September 16.

Elected Chaplain of Elks.
Rev. Edgar Carpenter of the local lodge of Elks yesterday afternoon was elected chaplain of the state lodge of Elks in session in Norfolk.

Abram Kipp of Colburn, Ky., while en route from New York to his home on a Chesapeake and Ohio train yesterday afternoon was stricken with cardiac indig-estation. He got off here and went to the Hotel Rammel, where he was attended by Dr. S. B. Moore. He was able to resume his journey today. Mr. Kipp was accompanying his wife and son.

Emanuel Lyles, who lives near Springfield, Fairfax county, reports that snow fell at his place Tuesday. He says he went out and examined the flakes to satisfy himself that it was snow.
The bulk of the old light ship Relief, which is on the opposite side of the river, was blown up this afternoon with gunpowder.

Mrs. H. B. Caton and little son returned today from Ocean Grove, N. J., where they have been spending the past month.

Miss Julia Lathrop, the recently appointed chief of the new children's bureau of the Department of Commerce and Labor, had hardly reached her desk this morning before newspaper men attempted to interview her, but of which she wanted a respite. She said she had a chance to wash her little face and put on her newest bib and tucker before the nurse took the dear little thing downstairs to see visitors.

The government's baby does not look very much like a bureau as yet, although Miss Lathrop had a business-like air when she assumed charge of the one-dash, one table and innumerable letters in the rented building on Louisiana avenue where the District government was at one time housed. When the baby gets going, however, Miss Lathrop promises many interesting things for it, and invited the newspaper visitors to come around next week, when things would be in line shape, and the baby would be learning to walk.

The children's bureau is going to take care of so many phases of child life in the United States that it makes an imaginative person gasp to think about it.
It is not going to be merely an institution to look into facts concerning child labor, but it is going to take the American child right through school, find out just what he needs and just what he gets, and try to arrange these United States so that all babies will want to be born here.

and will be the largest tank steamer afloat. It is to be 420 feet long.

Issue Raised Over Roosevelt's Letter to Cortelyou.

HONOLULU, August 30.—Secretary Knox refused on his arrival here to make any comment on Theodore Roosevelt's denial that he had ever said in the presence of Mr. Knox that letters to George B. Cortelyou were written "to make good the record." The letters in question were instructions that any contributions made by the Standard Oil Company to the republican campaign fund of 1904 must be returned.
"As I have made no statement concerning the correspondence between Mr.
Roosevelt and Mr. Cortelyou on any subject," said Mr. Knox, "and as I have never authorized any one to make any statement for me, you must excuse me from discussing the subject now."

In Memoriam.
LIVERPOOL, Sacred to the memory of our dear wife, ELIZABETH LIVERPOOL, who died seven years ago today, August 29, 1905.
Some day, when on his listening ear Shall fall the song of heavenly choir, When we shall meet the golden street And there our precious loved ones meet, We shall be with our loved ones meet.
BY HER HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

RICHARD MANSFIELD,
Passed from this life August 30, 1907.
"We pass the path that each man trod, It dim, or will be dim, with woods What fate is left for human deeds In endless ages? It rests with God."
